

Society

MRS. ANDREW FRYE TUTTLE.
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Jones, whose wedding took place on Thursday at Ridgeway. Mrs. Tuttle was before her marriage Miss Daisy King Jones.

Lent will begin on Wednesday of this week, and all the churches in town will be thronged with society people on that day. In numbers of other cities big ball masques will mark Shrove Tuesday evening, and the season is to be concluded in a whirl of brilliant entertainments, but only a very few small affairs will be given here. There will be the dance of the Richmond German Club to-morrow evening in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel, this being the last Monday of the winter season, another german to be given just immediately after Easter.

But there are all sorts of charity functions planned for the coming weeks of sackcloth and ashes, and society girls and men are going to be very busy, indeed, exceedingly busy, getting ready for the big production of the Mikado, which is going to be given here at the Academy of Music on March 27 and 28. The most elaborate plans are being made for this great event, which promises to be the biggest amateur performance that has been given in Richmond for a generation and all society is agog over who is to take part in it. One of the most interesting facts about the giving of the Mikado here at Easter is that exactly twenty-six years ago it was given first to open the Academy of Music, then the old Mozart Theatre.

This fascinating and most charming of operas is to be given under the direction of the Girls' Auxiliary to the Belle Bryan Day Nursery and Free Kindergarten and the list of patrons will include most of the fashionable married women in town. The committees in charge include: general arrangements, Miss Mary Chalmers (chairman), Miss Nora Randolph, Isabelle Carter, Elizabeth Cooke, program, Miss Nancy Patton (chairman), Miss Lora Crump, Miss Mary Saunders, Miss Mary Scarborough, Miss Edith Donnan, Miss Virginia Whitely, advertising, Miss Mary Scarborough (chairman), Miss Julia Jones (chairman), Miss Lucy Ford Wortham, Miss Edith Donnan, Miss Belle Willard, Miss Roberta Trigg, Miss Della Davenport, tickets, Mrs. Douglas Vander Hook, initiations, Miss Julia Jones, Miss Elizabeth Hargrave, dressing rooms, Miss Mabel Walker (chairman), Miss Charlotte Bemis, Miss Elsie Lindsey and Mrs. Brian Smith.

Going South. Colonel and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard and Miss Belle Willard, who are now in New York, will leave in March for a trip to Panama and South America. Their daughters have recently spent two weeks at their country estate, "Layton Hall," in Fairfax County.

Mrs. A. D. Landerkin, Mrs. Clara Sumner of Gardiner, Me., and Messrs. Russell and E. H. Ferguson will leave Richmond on Tuesday for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend some time. They will visit a number of other Southern resorts before returning to this city.

Married in New York. John Walter Briggs, of this city, announces the marriage of his sister, Miss Grace Lee Briggs, to Lawrence Van Wyck of Scarsdale, N. Y., the ceremony having taken place very quietly in New York City yesterday.

P. & B.

Tailored Waist at $1.00

SPRING BLOUSES FOR 1913

It Is Welcome News

Beautiful effects in high and low neck, made up in lingerie and silk. Many Cavalier Blouses are shown in voile, batiste and crepe. Neat designs of hand-embroidery help to complete the collection.

Waist of marquisette and fine lawn, tucked and designed in numerous styles with Val. and Swiss insertion and edge; others with sailor collar of Swiss edged with Val.; three-quarter and long sleeve..... $1.00

Lingerie Blouses of marquisette, in plain or fancy stripe, tucked or plain yoke; collars and cuffs of Swiss or collar of same, trimmed in Val. or crochet edge $1.98

Lingerie Waist of batiste, with fancy shape yoke of fine net, striped in bands of Val. and Swiss; others of allover embroidery; open front, with attached collars $2.98

Lingerie Waists of batiste and marquisette, tucked and set in with Swiss medallions, trimmed front and back in Val. and Cluny insertion..... $3.98

Tailored Waists, in plain linen, dimities and madras, with French collar and cuff..... $1.00

Silk Blouses

Smart Blouse of white crepe de chine, collar and rever, hem-stitched, glass buttons..... $5.98

Stylish Blouse of white crepe de chine, high neck, with yoke hand embroidered, pearl buttons..... $7.98

Kaufmann & Co.

Lingerie Waists of batiste and marquisette, trimmed in Cluny and Val., hand embroidered; others trimmed in baby Irish and fancy medallions of Irish crochet and Swiss, beautifully designed; many different patterns and styles..... $5.00

Ladies' Plain Tailored Waists of colored striped pique, in all colors, French collar and cuffs..... $1.50

Plain Tailored Waist of fine linen, crocheted button-tops, French collar and cuffs..... $1.98

Dressy Chiffon Blouse, vest and collar of white chiffon, hem-stitched, trimmed in contrasting colors, long sleeve—finished with net frill..... $5.75
Jap Silk Tailored Waists of striped patterns, in all colors..... $2.98

Kaufmann & Co.

Fourth and Broad Streets

Advance Showing of Spring Dresses

Eponge and Cashmere Shadow Lace Vests, rever of satin, trimmed in moire of contrasting colors, collar embroidered, the new gathered skirt, with draped front; special..... $20.00

Now Selling at Final Reductions

Winter Suits and Dresses

A lot of $15.00 Corduroy Dresses $9.75
at.....
In tailored effects, trimmed in white, finished with lace jabot.

A lot of $22.50 and $25.00 $12.50
Dresses at.....
of charmeuse and French serge, eponge and two-toned effects, in one of a kind, suitable for street and afternoon wear; all colors.

A lot of 35 Suits, in French serge, chevrot, diagonal and stylish mixtures; some trimmed in braid, others strictly tailored, also Norfolk effects; black, blue, tan and brown; $12.50 value; special..... $6.75

$22.50 and $25.00 Suits, in diagonal serge, chevrots, French serge and mixtures, mostly tailored models; others with velvet collar and cuffs, trimmed in buttons; an exceptional value; all colors. $12.50

$15.00 English Tweed Raincoats, full length ragland sleeve, fasten high to neck; gray, brown, blue and Oxford; special $10.00

SALE OF SILK PETICOATS

The narrowness of skirts require a soft, clinging petticoat, and such is what we are offering at these remarkable low prices.

$2.98 Petticoats of messaline, in solid and two-tone effects. The style and quality of this garment is exceptional at the price; all colors $1.98

An exceptional value in Messaline Petticoats, different styles to select from, with and without under flounce, all colors, also extra size; special for..... $2.98

Crepe de Chine Petticoats, knife pleated flounce—extra quality; special..... $5.98

$5.00 Jersey Top Petticoat, with deep pleated messaline flounce, finished with two narrow ruffles; all colors..... $3.75

A Fitted Petticoat, with Jersey top; messaline flounce, messaline drop; all colors..... $5.00

$5.00 Extra Quality Messaline and Brocade Petticoats, pleated flounce, finished with narrow ruffle and messaline drop, also extra sizes, in all colors..... $3.98

Spring Hats

A smart collection of

French Models

and our own new creations are now being shown in our Millinery

Salon (2d floor).

Many new shapes

shown. Predominating

colors are Nell Rose,

French Blue, Amber,

Purple and Gold.

Novelty stickups in feathers and flowers are being shown for trimmings.

Warner's Corset

Warner Corset, model for the average figure, high bust, long hip and back, 6 hose supports..... $1.00

A model for the medium figure, low bust, long skirt, 6 hose supports..... $1.50

A model for the stout figure, medium low bust, long hip and back graduated front steel and heavy side bones..... $2.00

A model for the tall, well-developed figure, low bust, extremely long hip and back, 6 hose supports..... $3.00

A model for the full figure, low bust, heavily boned elastic lace front, for..... $4.00

return to Washington to reside."

At the Woman's Club.

A dramatic reading by Miss Jean Wilson, of Washington, D. C., will be the Monday afternoon attraction at the Woman's Club. Miss Wilson is a very talented woman who has given readings at the White House and many prominent houses in Washington.

The hostesses are Mrs. Charles Davenport, Mrs. Harry Hazard, Mrs. E. G. Higginbotham and Miss Tabb. On next Wednesday afternoon, the third of a series of lectures on architecture will be given by Miss Augusta Daniel.

Under Mrs. John Munce's able chairmanship the Wednesday afternoon tea will be a most successful one. Devoted to the literary and social, it has proved specially fine this winter. Dr. Macaulay's discussion of "Greyfriars Bobby" on last Wednesday afternoon placed that inimitable story on the list of classic literature something all lovers of literature desire to own permanently.

At the Samovar.

The Samovar Tea Room, at 35 East Franklin Street, has been a great success during the past week, and a great many informal affairs have been given there. Some of those noted have been Mrs. P. Nash, Miss Mary Moore, Miss Mary Stuart, Miss Hazard, Mrs. Hampden C. Chamberlain, Miss Ella Buck, Miss Mary Butler, of Matthews County; Gordon Smith, Fred Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Miss Gay Montague, Miss Elsie Parish, Miss Mary Scarborough, Miss Frances Wheat, Miss Mrs. Thomas Burton Snead, Miss Virginia Christian, Miss Fanny Miller, Miss Emma Gray White, Miss Mary Boyd, Miss Allen Stokes, Mrs. H. Logan Holson, Mrs. Virgil Randolph, of "Eastoutville"; Mrs. Charles D. Large, Mrs. James R. V. Daniel, Mrs. Ashby Williams and others.

Concerning Miss Hatcher. Head of the music department of the Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, Pa., is now spending a week with her mother, Mrs. William E. Hatcher, at her country estate, "Carleby Hall," near York Union. Miss Hatcher has recently returned from Vienna, where she studied with Smetana. She had great success with her work in Vienna, and is rapidly making a name for herself as a pianist in both New York and Philadelphia, having been introduced in the latter city by Mrs. Henry Baltz to many of the music lovers there. Her next engagement is for February 17, when she will give a recital in New York under the patronage of Mrs. Manniere, of that place.

Prominent Wedding. One of the most prominent and notable weddings of the year was that of Miss Susie Selden Dimmock and Bryant Hawk Prentice, of Buffalo, N. Y., which took place Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newport News.

The Rev. Thomas C. Darst, D. D., rector of the church, assisted by Rev. S. Roger Tyler, of this city, officiated. The church decorations were in palms, ferns and cathedral candles in a color scheme of green and white.

The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, Samuel R. Buxton, by whom she was given away at the chancel steps, where she was met by the bridegroom and his best man, Henry Raymons, of New York.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin with an overdress of chiffon cloth trimmed in real lace, and her veil was arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a presentation bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Catherine Schmidt, of York, Pa., was maid of honor and wore a gown of white and green charmeuse with crystal trimmings. Her bouquet was pink roses in shower effect.

Miss Beila Plummer, the first maid, wore white crepe meteor with lace tunic and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The bride was attended by a charming bevy of maids, including Miss Ruth Hubbard, of New York; Miss Margaret Fishburne, of Leesburg; Miss Powell Byrd, of Gloucester, and Miss Judith Jenkins, of Baltimore. They wore white crepe meteor, trimmed in pink rosebuds and carried lighted tapers.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Henderson Gregory, of Washington; Clarence Prentice, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Raymond Noyes, of New York, and Robert Prentice, of Buffalo, N. Y.

A large reception followed at the home of the bride. Guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Hawk, Clarence Prentice and Robert Prentice, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Catherine Schmidt, of York, Pa.; Miss Margaret Fishburne, of Leesburg; Miss Powell Byrd, of Gloucester; Henderson Gregory, of Washington; Henry Raymond, Edmund Spaulding and Raymond Noyes, of New York; Miss Viola Bryan, of Buffalo; Miss Judith Jenkins, of Baltimore; Miss Grace West, of Watery; Mrs. Horace Wolford Jones, of Richmond; Miss Lily Gardner, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. Williams and Miss Elsie Williams, of Norfolk; Miss Emily Taylor, of Norfolk; Rev. S. Roger Tyler, of Richmond.

Lenten Tea Room. According to their annual custom, the Girls' Club of the Belle Bryan Day Nursery will open a tea room in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel for the Lenten season. The members of the Girls' Club are a number of the most prominent society girls in Richmond, and the tea room conducted by them is always a gathering place for smart and fashionable people each afternoon during the penitential weeks.

Hostesses for the afternoons in each week are Monday, Miss Mabel Walker; Tuesday, Miss Mabel Walker; Wednesday, Miss Elizabeth Davenport; Thursday, Miss Mabel Walker; Friday, Mrs. Marian Harris; Saturday, Mrs. Robert G. Cabell; and Sunday, Mrs. Robert G. Cabell.

The tea room will be opened on the afternoon of Thursday, February 6, and will be continued every afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock until the end of Lent.

Quiet Wedding.

Miss Mary Chesterman Murray and John Ervin Robinson were married on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, 223 Stuart Avenue. The wedding was a very quiet one on account of bereavement in the family of the bride, and the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Rebman left immediately for an extended trip to North America and after February 20 will be at home at 223 Stuart Avenue, in this city.

At the Art Club.

Mrs. J. J. Montague will talk at the Art Club of Richmond on Tuesday afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock. Her subject will be "The King's Castles at Bavaria and the Highway to Them." Mrs. Montague is an artist of no mean ability and a very interesting speaker, and she will illustrate her talk on Tuesday with a number of sketches made on this very highway that she will tell her audience about.

Tea will be served at the conclusion of the lecture by the house committee.

Miss Johnston to Attend Dinner.

One of the speakers at a dinner given by the Men's League for Woman Suffrage and the Woman Suffrage Party at the Hotel Astor, in New York, on February 14th, will be Miss Johnston, of this city. She is the daughter of the late John C. Johnston, of this city, and is a member of the Rhode Island Woman Suffrage Association.

The Astor dinner will be in celebration of the anticipated passage of the woman's suffrage bill by the Legislature. A large attendance is anticipated by the chairman, Miss Mary Garrett Hay and James Lees Laidlaw.

The speakers will be Mrs. Philip Snowden, of London; Miss M. Johnston, the novelist; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Comptroller Prendergast, District Attorney Whitman and Justice Guy.

At the parlor suffrage meeting, held in Petersburg, Wednesday, January 23, Mrs. G. Taylor, Jr., John L. Butler, C. E. Whitlock, Clifton Miller, Hequembourg, Mary DeWitt Adams, John Farland, H. C. Whitehurst, M. B. Thomas, Logan Golsan, Ware R. Gay, Thomas Higgin, Miss Nora Houston, Marion Rylan, Helen Ellsbrown and L. Blanch Thomas. The first tea will be given on the afternoon of Wednesday, February 12.

Engagement Announced. Rev. and Mrs. Henry Lewis Quarles, of Manassas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frieda Lewis, to John William Yowell, of Culpeper. The wedding will be celebrated on the evening of February 15 in the Baptist Church at Manassas.

Meetings This Week.

The regular monthly meeting of the general board of managers of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital will be held to-morrow noon at the hospital. The meeting takes place one week earlier than usual on account of arrangements to be made for Founder's Day, which falls on Thursday, February 13. All members are urged to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held on Tuesday morning, February 4, at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. A full attendance is desired.

The Branch R. Allen Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in the annex to Murphy's Hotel. This is the regular monthly meeting, and a very important one, and all members of the auxiliary are urged to be present.

Another important meeting, to be held on the morning of Tuesday, February 4, is that of the central committee of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. This meeting will take place at 11 o'clock in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society on East Franklin Street, and all members are asked to be present.

The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. L. A. McPhail, 298 East Franklin Street. A large attendance is desired.

Monthly Meeting. The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Bryan Day Nursery and Free Kindergarten was held on Friday, January 25. Reports made at this meeting showed excellent work, and there were a large number of members present. The home seems to be in a fine condition and prospects for the coming year most favorable.

Wedding Plans. Plans have been announced for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Douglas Wise, of Baltimore, to the Duke de Richelieu, which is to be solemnized on Saturday, February 8, in the Cathedral of Baltimore. Cardinal Gibbons will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a wedding breakfast and reception at the Stratford Hotel. Miss Wise will have as maid of honor and only attendant her young niece, Miss Leslie Frick.

Miss Wise is a member of the Wise family of Virginia, her father being Captain F. M. Wise, of the United States Navy, who was killed in China. She is a cousin of William C. Whitney, of New York, Miss Cecilia May, of Washington, and of Lady Bagot, of London. She has lived abroad for the last few years, and only recently returned to this country. Miss Wise is to accept the faith of her future husband, and will be taken into the Catholic Church a short time before the marriage. The Duke is the head of a well-known family of that name in France. The couple met last spring in Paris as dinner guests by Mrs. Seth Barton French. They will reside in New York.

At the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Collins Denny will speak on "Conditions in Brazil" this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in connection with the vespers service of the Young Women's Christian Association, held at the gymnasium, corner of Fourth and Cary Streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harding will furnish the music.

Both men and women are cordially invited to be present.

Attractive Concert. A very attractive concert was given at the Laurel Street Methodist Church on Thursday night by the following well-known singers: Mrs. N. P. Norris, Miss Ada Kuyk, Miss Julia R. Culbreth, Messrs. J. E. White, W. A. Watkins, J. P. Dashiell and J. L. Womble, accompanist.

Mrs. Norris, Miss Kuyk and Miss Culbreth made a duet rendered by Mrs. Norris and Mr. Watkins and a trio by Mrs. Norris, Mr. White and Mr. Watkins, besides several male quartets and choruses. There was a large audience and the applause was most enthusiastic.

Wilkinson-Cunningham. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cunningham announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Cunningham, to Kenbridge. The wedding will take place the middle of next March.

Child Study Class. A class in Child Study has just been organized under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Singleton Coleman, head of the kindergarten training of the city, meeting every Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at 15 North Fifth Street. This work is designed for mothers and others similarly interested in the study of children. The current theories of Child Study will be taken up and compared and a call library of recent publications bearing upon the topics under discussion will be at the disposal of the class. This work will continue until June 1.

Entertained in Norfolk. Miss Carolyn Gwathmey gave a dinner at the Country Club in Norfolk, Saturday evening. The table had a pretty centre piece of pink roses and ferns and covers were laid for sixteen. Miss Gwathmey's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Montague Osborne, Miss Susie Galt, Miss Ethel Tallie, Miss Camille Rodman, Miss Margaret Freeman, of Richmond, Miss Katharine Robinson, Miss Mary Wright, Charles Grant, Charles Hume, Dr. Faulkner, Hugh Blair Galt, Herbert Nash, Mr. Macon, and Lieutenant Sterling, United States Army.

Rowley—Myers. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Myers, on North Pitt Street, Alexandria, was, Thursday evening, the scene of a beautiful wedding when their only daughter, Lila Marie, was given in marriage to Thomas Urquhart Rowley.

(Continued on Third Page)

Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness Delivered Anywhere.

Violets, Orchids, Pink Sweet Peas

OF EXCEPTIONAL BEAUTY

It pays to be particular in sending flowers—insist upon the beauty and freshness that mean lasting pleasure to the recipient. This quality costs no more here.

Out-of-town orders especially should be Hammond flowers. We have shipped to far West, North and South with success. Prices always moderate.

HAMMOND

VIRGINIA'S LARGEST FLORIST.
109 E. Broad. Telephone
Mad. 630.